Saint Valentine Fondue

Monday, February 14 at Noon

Café Romand, Lausanne

Having fondue at a typical and historic brasserie at Place Saint-François, we will be, literally and physically, in the heart of Lausanne for Valentine's Day. Doesn't this sound nice ?

The Café Romand is the perfect place.

We have chosen lunch time so we will not have to deal with traffic and darkness in the evening.

Address : Place Saint-François 2, Lausanne

Parking : Montbenon

Deadline : Saturday, February 12

Cost : Fondue classique 25.50. Fondue with white beer (!) 27.50. You pay your consumption to the waiter.

Signing up : ilausanneclub@gmail.com or Alicia 021 617 96 73 (leave message)

Come along

Playreading by the Village Players

'The Physicists' by F. Dürrenmatt. Möbius is a physicist and patient on a psychiatric ward run by the hunch-backed Mathilde von Zahnd. His fellow in-patients believe themselves to be Sir Isaac Newton and Albert Einstein respectively. He himself has recurring visions of King Solomon. But who is really mad in this madhouse?
