Aubonne – a Charming Town

Fine Dining and guided Town Walk

Wednesday, June 15 12:00

Aubonne is kind of a hidden, overlooked town despite that it is easily recognized by the round tower of the château that dominates the medieval town and its vineyards and can be seen from far away. Even Wikipedia does not have any relevant information on it.

The château dates back to the 13th century (1236-42) and the town developed around it. The picturesque houses, the narrow streets and the inner courtyard of the Château are to be discovered on foot.

In contrast to its history, the town offers since a little more than a year an additional exceptional attraction. A restaurant serving Scandinavian oriented dishes has settled into the historic center. It is called the Njorden and it has obtained high scores in reviews. ICL members are invited to enjoy a gastronomic moment before going on a guided town visit. Have a look at the attractive menu the chef is proposing just for our club. If we are less than eight, will have to choose à la carte.

Signing up : The 'cuisine' at the Njorden is custom prepared to the demand of the client. For a group of more than eight and to guarantee a top quality, the chef suggests the menu below from which several dishes can be selected. He must have everyone's choice latest by Sunday May 29.

Wine is selected by the restaurant to match the dishes and is a paying option.

Guided Tour : It is offered. Those who choose not to participate in the lunch can still join the town visit. Meeting is in the restaurant or at the fountain in front of the Maison communale at 14h15. MAP
