Saturday, 7 May at 14 h 00

Exhibition on Dr. Alexandre Yersin

At the Bolle Fondation and Museum Alexis Forel, Morges

Dr. Alexis Yersin (1863-1943), a citizen of Morges, discoverer of the 'bacillus', of the plague, with his original personality and unusual life, never ceases to amaze. His rich correspondence and his unprecedented photos permit the Fondation Bolle to retrace the effervescent activities of this doctor from Morges. He abandoned a promising position as a researcher in microbiology at the Institut Pasteur de Paris to seek adventure and to collaborate in the birth of French Indochina. Alternately, but always with passion, he was a navy doctor, explorer, bacteriologist, director of a medical school, a creator of laboratories and giant farms...and more.

(cost: adult CHF 10.-, AVS CHF 8.- (owner of a Raiffeisen card: no cost).

Deadline: Thursday, 5 May
