Botswana : Alone in the heart of Africa

Lunch at 12:30 followed by the talk on Botswana

Both at La Longeraie, Morges

Wednesday, 23 November

In summer 2021 Annemarie Kölliker and Roberto Saibene managed despite the Covid pandemic, to complete their planned trip to one of the most unspoiled regions of Africa. During three weeks they travelled by jeep, boat, dugout canoes and small airplanes through the wilderness. They were almost the only visitors in the middle of the savannah and mostly stayed in tents and small lodges.

On countless, exhausting safari tours in the Okavango Delta and other national parks, they could admire the rich animal world. Shy big cats and countless hoofed animals always provided exciting encounters. Botswana also has by far the largest population of elephants. Also the rich and colorful birdlife were another highlight of the trip.

The multivision show will take us through wildly romantic landscapes, deserts, savannahs, swamps and impressive waterways.

Venue : La Longeraie, Morges

Time : 12:30 Lunch followed by the Botswana Presentation

Deadline : Friday, 18 November

Cost : CHF 35.- includes lunch and Botswana Presentation. Beverages are at own expense.
