Vallée de Joux : Autumn colors and Watchmaking

Wednesday, October 19 11h45

Names like Audemar-Piguet, Jaeger-LeCoultre et Breguet are names that are known all over the world. They are just three of other Swiss watchmakers which have their headquarters and production sites in the Vallée de Joux. Why high-precision watchmaking came to the Vallée you will learn on the day of your visit.

The Vallée is also a nice destination because of its picturesque countryside with the Dent de Vaulion and the lake.

We will stop at Le Pont for lunch near the lake shore. Afterwards, we shall move on to the Jaeger-LeCoultre manufacture, or for those who have not signed up, to the watch museum 'Espace horloger'. For the Jaeger-LeCoultre group, ICL will pay half of the 40.--/person that Jaeger-LeCoultre asks. For those going to the watch museum, ICL will reimburse the entry fee.
