

HEROES OF ANTIQUITY

Flemish Tapestry Meets Archaeology...

Click on image to view the tapestries on exhibit

Alexander the Great, Scipio the African, Marc Anthony, Titus and Vespasian or Constantine, the heroes of Antiquity are figures who draw crowds to the cinema, captivate children and fascinate researchers.

The Museum Rath is offering an approach to them through the magnificent 17th century tapestries from the Toms Pauli Foundation in Lausanne and from the Museum of Art and History's own collection, most of which have been in storage for over fifty years and have undergone conservation treatment specially for the occasion.

Set against objects from Antiquity – status, intaglios, prints, books, coins, etc. – these tapestries enable us to appreciate today the interest taken in these great figures in the era of Louis XIV and to understand the message they convey.

Exposition: 29 November - 2 March 2014
Musée Rath, Place Neuve, 1204 Geneva

CHRISTMAS HUMOUR

How long should a reindeer's legs be ?
Just long enough to reach the ground!

Why did the reindeer wear sunglasses at the beach ?

Because he didn't want to be recognised !

Which reindeer have the shortest legs?
The smallest ones !

The irony of life is that, by the time you're old enough to know your way around,
you're not going anywhere.

Aspire to inspire before you expire.

My wife and I had words, but I didn't get to use mine.

The Story Behind the Song

The song was written by Catholics in England as a catechism song to teach their children about the Christian faith. The song's "gifts" help remember the teachings of the faith.

"True Love" refers to God and, "Me" refers to every Christian.

The meaning of the other symbols:

Partridge in a Pear Tree = Jesus Christ

Turtle Doves = The Old & New Testaments

French Hens = Faith, Hope and Charity or the Father, Son and Holy Spirit Trinity

Calling Birds = The Four Gospels

Golden Rings = First Five Books of the Old Testament

Swans-A-Swimming = The Seven Gifts of the Holy Spirit (I Corinthians 12:8-10)

Maids-A-Milking = The Eight Beatitudes (Matthew 5:3-10)

Ladies Dancing = The Nine Fruits of the Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:22-23)

Lords-A-Leaping = The Ten Commandments (Exodus 20)

Pipers Piping = Eleven Apostles, not Judas

Drummers Drumming = The Twelve Points of Doctrine in the Apostle's Creed
